NEW ENGLAND EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION.

The Evangelistic Association of New England met on the 10th of May, in the Park Street Congregational Church, Boston. The sessions were continued through two days. Many evangelists who have been employed or aided by the Association were present, a considerable number of whom delivered earnest and telling addresses. One session was given to the woman's auxiliary of the Association and was addressed by Mrs. Howard L. Porter and Mrs. Joseph Cook. One of the most interesting features of the meeting was the presence and addresses of Rabbi Warzawiak, a converted Russian Jew, who in two years has preached the gospel to over 50,000 Jews in New York city and has succeeded in winning many hundreds of them to Christ. The story of his conversion, of his persecution, and of the Lord's leading him into his work, reminds one in many ways of the marvelous story of the apostle Paul.

This New England Evangelistic Association, formed only a few years ago, has grown rapidly in membership and resources. The first year $1000 were spent. The last year more than $10,000 have been expended. Seven different denominations are represented in the Association. Its object is to carry the gospel to those who are neglected, in the streets, in school-houses and all other places.

GRANITE CUTTERS' STRIKE AND LOCK-OUT.

New England was, during May, the scene of an extensive strike and lock-out among the quarry-men, stone-cutters, etc. The essence of the difficulty was whether the contracts should be made with the workmen at the first of May each year, when work is plenty and the employees can largely dictate their own terms, or at the first of January, when work is slack and the employers can have it nearly their own way. Reason and prudence have prevailed more and more of late years in such labor troubles as this, and doubtless will in this case, though we go to press too early to know the outcome.
